GROOVIN' THE MOTHER LODE...AND BEYOND

Dig horn-based music? Like to dance? Then treat yourself to a healthy dose of Chains Required! We're a 10-piece rhythm & blues band based in Sonora, California and our goal is to provide a soul-stirring musical experience.

Formed in 2007 by trombonist George Greenfield and friends, Chains Required is composed of top-tier local musicians who really enjoy entertaining with tunes spanning from the 60s to present. Central to the band is a four-piece horn section with journeyman players, backed by a sizzling-hot rhythm section to lay down the beat. In front are two singers guaranteed to knock your socks off. Perhaps that's why the Sierra Lodestar Magazine named us "Best Local Band" for Tuolumne County (March, 2010).

Put Chains Required on the short list for your live music needs including night club, parties, weddings, corporate functions and any special event where dancing is paramount. Groove is one hundred percent guaranteed!...
